

Most abductions are perpetrated by relatives

- over 800,000 children under 18 years of age are abducted annually according to the United States Department of Justice

Over 58,000 abductions are perpetrated by non-family members

- over 21,00 children are abducted annually by complete strangers

Children ages 6-14 comprise upwards of 60% of abductions

- statistically, 69 children are abducted daily in the United States alone